

3rd INTERNATIONAL SPORTS REHAB MEETING

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Acceptance of and compliance with the administrative and organisational terms are conditions for admission and attendance at the conference. Please note that by placing a purchase order, participants declare that they have read the regulations and accept all terms and conditions in full.

Personal data protection code.

In accordance with EU Regulation 679/2016 - "Personal Data Protection Code", the company will come into possession of your personal data. The processing of information concerning you will be based on principles of correctness, lawfulness and transparency, protecting confidentiality and rights. In particular, we confirm that "sensitive" data may only be processed with the written consent of the data subject and with the prior authorisation of the Data Protection Authority (EU Regulation 679/2016). Pursuant to EU Regulation 679/2016, we therefore provide you with the following information: Purpose of processing: your personal data is collected, recorded, stored and managed for purposes functional to the exercise of rights and obligations provided for by law and/or contract, in particular accounting and tax purposes, to fulfil your specific requests, as well as for credit protection purposes; for marketing, commercial and promotional purposes, including by email and website. Methods of processing: the data is processed in paper and/or electronic form. Mandatory/optional nature: the provision of data is mandatory by law and/or for contractual compliance. Refusal to provide such data could result in the non-execution or partial execution of the contract and/or the provision of the service.

Communication to other parties: the data will be disclosed, in their capacity as Data Processors or Persons in Charge of Processing, to authorised employees of the Company and may be communicated to credit institutions and/or financial companies, debt collection companies and/or freelancers used by our organisation, including in association with public authorities and administrations, to the event's sponsor companies (the list can be requested from the company) and to Innovation Campus Milano srl. The subjects belonging to the above categories, to whom your data may be communicated, will use such data as data controllers, with the exception of the subjects appointed as data processors.

Data dissemination: the data will NOT be disseminated. Data controller: Fisiolab Città di Crema srl, via IV Novembre 56-58, 26013 Crema, Italy and Sports Rehab via Trevano 87,6900 Lugano, Switzerland. The data processor will provide you with the feedback required by law if you intend to exercise your rights under EU Regulation 679/2016. The undersigned, having acquired the information referred to in EU Regulation 679/2016, by signing the attendance form, gives their consent to the processing of personal data in order to allow the formalisation of mutual relations in the context of the management of informational, organisational and scientific communications and authorises publication on the channels of International Sports Rehab Meeting, Fisiolab Città di Crema srl, Sports Rehab, Phisiovit srl and their partners of images taken by staff for educational and promotional purposes.

Cancellation policy

A 50% refund of the total amount paid will be given if cancellation occurs more than 30 days before the start of the event (by 9:00 a.m. on 20/10/2026); after this deadline (from 12:00 a.m. on 21/10/2026), it will be possible to be replaced by another person who meets the requirements, without any changes to the registration made. It is possible to make changes to the registration (e.g. participation in workshops) up to 30 days before the event (by 11:00 on 20/10/2026), subject to availability.

Rules of conduct

For security reasons, access to the rooms is permitted until all available seats are filled. However, access to one of the two conference rooms is always guaranteed. During the conference, participants are required to behave appropriately towards teachers and colleagues. Any behaviour that disrupts the smooth running of the lessons will result in removal from the classroom without the participant being entitled to any kind of refund. Participants who, through their negligence or other direct or indirect causes, cause damage to property or persons are liable for civil and criminal compensation. Participants may be involved by the teacher in practical exercises, either as operators or as patients. If, for any reason, participants cannot be subjected as patients to some or all of the practical manoeuvres included in the conference programme, they must give prior written notice to the secretariat, which will inform the teacher. Under no circumstances will the company be responsible for the practical exercises carried out among participants during the workshops it organises.

Participants agree to use all aids available in the classroom that are useful for educational demonstrations and practical tests, always taking the utmost care for their own safety. Fisiolab Città di Crema srl and Sports Rehab decline any responsibility arising from the careless use of any devices available to participants.
